IV. Old Business
  - Committee Chairs Report
The professional development committee chair said that the research on the tuition and benefits for employees will be completed soon. Their committee will also be offering a brown bag session to give employees information about how to become a student to use the tuition benefit offered by the university.

The welfare committee chair said that the hardship fund is currently at $12,000. He will be at the benefits fair to talk to employees about the hardship fund. Clint Lovelace is also the chair of the health and benefits subcommittee. This committee will be looking at sick leave, long term disability, dependent tuition, etc.….

The grievance committee chair said that they are working on creating by-laws for the committee. They went over the policy to educate all committee members.

The nominations and elections committee chair recently filled a grievance committee vacancy.

- Update from Ad Hoc committees
  - The by-laws and the outreach and community service committee will be meeting soon.

V. New Business

- Benefits Fair – Wednesday November 14th, 7am – 5pm, Beard-Eaves Coliseum
  - A&P will have a table to advertise the purpose of A&P, the committees available, and the hardship fund.
  - We have star stress balls as giveaways for the table.

- Year-end event
  - It will be on Wednesday December 12th at Pebble Hill, 3pm.
  - We are still trying to find a speaker for the event.

VI. Executive Committee Report

- We have been planning the upcoming meeting and reporting back the information from our President Leath meetings.

- We have discussed that if parking is going up we have encouraged it to move to a monthly fee.

- It is encouraged to take the employee shuttle to the benefits fair due to limited parking.

VII. Comments from Chair

- He encouraged everyone to vote in the upcoming mid-term elections because it can affect issues important to university employees such as the RSA, etc.….
