I’m an employee and tested positive for COVID-19.

What happens next?

1. Contact your supervisor immediately.
   - Your supervisor will ask about your recent activities on campus.
   - You may be referred to your department’s COVID-19 liaison.

2. Complete the required COVID-19 Self-Report Form.
   The information goes to the Office of Institutional Research. It is kept confidential and is used to notify:
   - Facilities Management. They will disinfect the spaces where you have been working.
   - Campus Safety. They monitor information about the prevalence of COVID-19 on campus and will share this information anonymously as needed.

3. Stay tuned for additional guidance
   - More information, including when you can return to campus and types of leave available to you, will be provided by your COVID-19 liaison.
