

Faculty Feedback from COACHE 2017

81%

of faculty are satisfied with the intellectual vitality of pre-tenure faculty in their department.

87%

of faculty are satisfied with influence they have over the focus of their research, scholarly, or creative work.

80%

of faculty are satisfied with their health benefits.

88%

of faculty agree having a departmental mentor is important.

76%

of faculty are satisfied with the amount of professional interaction with pre-tenure faculty.

79%

of faculty are satisfied with clarity of process for promotion to full professor.

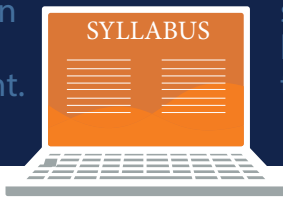

77%

of faculty are satisfied with clarity of tenure process.

88%

of faculty are satisfied with discretion over their course content.

84%

of faculty are satisfied with the level of courses taught.

82%

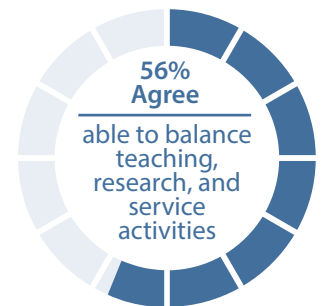

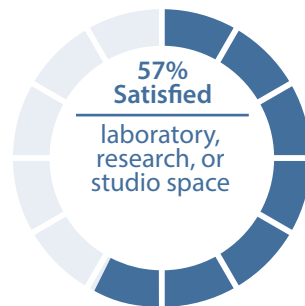

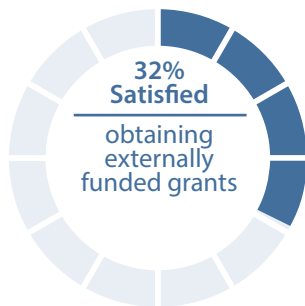

of faculty are satisfied with their teaching schedule.

76%

of faculty agree their department is collegial.

Faculty indicate they need more support for these areas.

Areas for Improvement

Spousal/partner hiring and flexible workload/modified duties

On-campus childcare

Cultivation of new faculty leaders

Support for faculty to be good mentors

Rewarding interdisciplinary work in promotion, tenure, merit, budgets, and facilities