Job Function:	Admissions & Recruitment

JOB SUMMARY

The Director of Undergraduate Recruitment will oversee and direct all recruitment efforts for in-state first-year, out-of-state first-year, transfer, and small-town and rural students. Reporting directly to the Assistant Vice President, Enrollment Management and Executive Director of Undergraduate Admissions, the Director will be responsible for developing and executing comprehensive recruitment strategies that align with the university's enrollment goals. The Director will lead a team of recruitment professionals and work collaboratively across campus departments and external organizations to ensure a diverse and talented student body.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develops and implements targeted strategies to recruit high-achieving in-state first-year students, leveraging data analytics and regional partnerships by collaborating with high schools, community organizations, and state education leaders to promote the university's programs and opportunities for in-state students.
- Creates and manages strategic recruitment plans to attract out-of-state students, with a focus on expanding the university's reach in key national markets by building relationships with out-of-state high schools and educational consultants to raise awareness of the university and its offerings.
- Oversees recruitment initiatives aimed at attracting transfer students from community colleges and other institutions, emphasizing seamless pathways to degree completion. This includes developing articulation agreements with key partner institutions and working with academic departments to facilitate transfer credit evaluations and degree mapping.
- Implements recruitment strategies specifically designed to engage students from small towns and rural areas, addressing the unique challenges these students face by partnering with rural education organizations, high schools, and community leaders to create outreach programs and events that promote access to higher education.
- Utilizes CRM tools and analytics to track recruitment trends, evaluate the effectiveness of strategies, provide regular reports on recruitment activities and outcome to senior leadership, and adjust plans as needed to meet enrollment goals, offering insights and recommendations for continuous improvement.
- Leads a team of recruitment professionals, providing mentorship, guidance, and support to ensure high levels of performance and engagement by fostering a collaborative environment focused on achieving strategic recruitment goals while promoting professional development opportunities for staff.
- Works closely with academic colleges and departments, financial aid, and student services to ensure recruitment strategies align with university-wide priorities and support prospective students throughout the admissions process. Builds and maintains strong relationships with external stakeholders, including high school counselors, community organizations, and educational partners.
- Assists with the planning and execution of recruitment events, including campus tours, open houses, virtual information sessions, and specialized visit programs for targeted student populations. Works with university departments to ensure a coordinated and impactful approach to student engagement during these events.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assists with development of budget for area(s) of responsibility, monitoring the departmental operating budget(s) to ensure spending aligns with division and departmental strategies.
- May perform other duties as assigned.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervisory Responsibility	Full supervisory responsibility for other employees is a major responsibility and includes training, evaluating, and making or recommending pay, promotion or other employment decisions.
