Job Code: AA73
FLSA status: Exempt
Job Family: No Family
Grade AA15 $89,400 - $169,900

Job Summary
Reporting to the Vice President and Associate Provost for Inclusion and Diversity, this position provides strategic leadership, direction and operational oversight to key subunits within Office of Inclusion and Diversity and supports the advancement of the units mission and goals. This position serves as a key team member in the Office of Inclusion and Diversity. This position is responsible for managing operations and ensuring optimal services are provided across the unit in the areas of communication, financial analysis, human resources, institutional research, and policy and procedures.

Essential Functions

1. Provides counsel to the Vice President and Associate Provost for Inclusion and Diversity on strategic and operational issues related to unit strategic planning, student success and belonging, DEI education, institutional research and assessment and communications towards the advancement of OID's mission and goals.

2. Provides day-to-day supervisory, operational and programmatic oversight to key OID subunits; to include the Cross Cultural Center for Excellence, DEI Education as well as research, assessment and strategic planning related responsibilities. Provides administrative oversight to the development of unit-wide processes, procedures and practices. Oversees annual sub-unit goal and budget allocation setting processes, to include the setting, review, adjustment and finalization of sub-unit budgets as well as deeper, more insightful financial analysis.

3. Represents OID on committees and other institutional bodies as assigned, providing advocacy, direction, counsel, and guidance based on institutional DEI goals and priorities.

4. Develops, compiles and presents research, analysis, reports, correspondences, and issue briefings based on research findings on topics related to campus climate, faculty/staff recruiting, student achievement, and other key initiatives. These reports provide the basis for policy and practice changes at the institutional-level.

5. Builds partnerships with key campus partners and stakeholders in academic and administrative units to support and enhance the quality of experiences and outcomes for underrepresented faculty, staff, and students.

6. Leads and implements strategies to enhance staff effectiveness, teamwork and professional development in the OID. Manages key unit performance indicators across the unit. Through direct reporting staff, identifies and implements continuous improvement initiatives to ensure operational effectiveness in a constantly changing environment.

7. Performs administrative assignments, special projects and initiatives as directed by the VP/AP, with the authority to delegate all tasks and projects to other personnel within OID.

8. Works collaboratively with the VP/AP to provide expertise in creating, reviewing, and approving university policies, procedures, and guidelines related to diversity, equity, and inclusion. This includes working on projects that have legal and compliance implications for the institution.

9. Works collaboratively with the VP/AP on campus-wide efforts to secure grants and external funding towards the advancement of diversity, equity, and inclusion. Consults with faculty on these efforts, providing guidance and strengthening OID's positioning for securing external funding opportunities.
