JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director of Honors College, the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs directs and oversees the academic advising and curriculum management functions for Auburn University Honors College. Serves as the primary liaison with the Honors College's faculty.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Directs and oversees the daily operations of the academic advisors within the Honors College and supervises the unit's Academic Advisory team.
- Coordinates all curricular matters in coordination with the Director, including recruiting new honors faculty, supporting the development of new honors courses, presenting to departments and colleges on honors teaching options, coordinating with departments on semester honors offerings, liaising with unit faculty and instructors, overseeing course approvals and offerings, supervising course building, managing honors contracts, and facilitating unit accreditation review processes. Coordinates with the Business Coordinator on course payments and HONR instructor hires. Oversees the curriculum changes for the four Honors College graduation distinctions, University Honors Scholar, University Honors Research Scholar, Honors Scholar, and Honors Research Scholar.
- Develops and implements operational guidelines and policies for the advisory team in coordination with the Director of the Honors College and in accordance with Auburn University Policies.
- Collects and interprets data relating to student advising and developmental needs within the unit and, in consultation with the Director of Honors College, devises creative strategies to meet those needs.
- Advises a caseload of undergraduate Honors College students regarding academic requirements, course selection and registration, and other issues related to academic and student success.
- Plans and coordinates all advising-related activities, events, and workshops for the Honors College, and participates in relevant recruiting and admissions-related and university-level events.
- Assists and works collaboratively with other campus academic/student services professionals to provide services to the students within the Honors College.
- Maintains a detailed calendar of all deadlines related to university and unit admissions, advising, and graduation, as well as related files, databases, and electronic records of materials.
- Teaches relevant Honors College participation courses.
- May perform other duties as assigned.
