JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Executive Director of the Harris Early Learning Center (HELCL), located in Birmingham, this position oversees day-to-day operations for the HELCL, to include oversight of enrollment and recruitment, employee supervision, and acting Human Resources Liaison (HRL) for the Center.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Receives applications, maintains waiting lists, and offers spaces to prospective families. Organizes Family Orientation for new and currently enrolled families. Communicates with prospective families; answers questions regarding enrollment, curriculum, schedules, tuition, and appropriate guidelines; and provides on-campus tours.
- Communicates and collaborates with families to address classroom concerns. Recommends additional consultation, as necessary.
- Collaborates with and assists the HELCL Executive Director to review lesson plans and address concerns expressed by employees, families, and/or colleagues. Performs biannual classroom observations, and provides constructive feedback to improve performance. Conducts annual performance evaluations, addresses performance issues, and holds disciplinary meetings as required. Maintains and manages daily schedule and calendar for leave requests, as well as spreadsheets containing National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) memberships, and staff certifications, including, but not limited to, CPR/First Aid, Schoolcast, and Procure.
- Oversees the contact and screening of applicants, as well as interviewing potential candidates, assessing candidate qualifications, and processing hiring proposals. Completes applicant background checks and I-9 verifications, as well as schedules new employee orientation.
- Collaborates with the Executive Director to plan HELCL celebrations, Staff Development Days, Teacher of Excellence Banquet, Book Fair, and other fundraisers. Oversees and collaborates with community and corporate sponsors.
- Oversees and manages personnel information, to include staff credentials, tracking required renewals, and ensuring all personnel maintain appropriate credentials, including NAEYC memberships, CPR/First Aid, TB Test, physical screening, background checks, required annual training, and other requirements that must be updated and/or renewed regularly.
