JOB SUMMARY

Directs and oversees all employer relations efforts and career services programs for graduate students in the College of Business.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides strategic vision and leadership for Graduate Career Services (GCS). Develops and manages GCS and the GCS team effectively and efficiently. Manages the program budget and deploys resources effectively. Seeks and implements career service improvements. Champions GCS and our students across all internal and external stakeholders.
- Coaches graduate students through the career exploration and discovery process. Assists students in the development, implementation, and execution of their individual career search process. Delivers coaching services through individual and group appointments.
- Proactively seeks out and establishes relationships with graduate-level recruiting teams at recognized employers in anticipation of student needs. Represents AU, HCOB, and Graduate Programs to hiring firms and positions HCOB GCS as a candidate resource for firms for interns and career positions. Assists students as able with connections to target firms. Works in parallel with students as they identify and drive their own company relationship process.
- Develops and delivers opportunities outside the classroom that enhance student’s competitiveness in the marketplace. Includes but is not limited to employer-related activities (e.g., find, setup, and host/travel to employers and events, etc.) and curriculum/programming (e.g., Excel Bootcamp, Leadership Development, etc.) that enhances skills needed in the workplace.
- Enhances program reputation and stature including overseeing accurate and high integrity accreditation and ranking data collection and reporting.
- Communicates regularly with the staff of the undergraduate career services office concerning career development activities such as job or internship fairs, career coaching sessions, and recruiting or interviewing activities.
- May participate in professional organizations related to career services.
- May be responsible for teaching academic courses.
