JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	Student Resources
Job Function:	Student Services

JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director of Student Conduct, this position supports the administrative functions of the Student Conduct Office and other student-facing units. This position will respond to internal and external complaints through formalized processes, act as the chief administrator of the student conduct record management system, and serve in a limited capacity as a Student Conduct hearing officer. The position will also support the engagement, retention, and success of target student populations, underserved student groups, and students who are experiencing barriers to success through referrals to existing campus resources and by creating programs and resources to support unmet or emerging student needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides oversight of the student conduct record management system and facilitates the use of all aspects of the system. Serves as the main point of contact and trainer for all system users. Updates and maintains user training materials, oversees system configuration and optimization, meets end user needs at the unit/departmental level, and works with the database management company to ensure optimal campus use of the system.
- Leads the Bias Education and Response Team (BERT), responding to bias reports across campus. Administers completion of timely and complete case documentation of all student referrals. Communicates the mission of BERT and its support services to the campus community.
- Oversees the Written Student Complaint process for Auburn University. Responds to student complaints, provides students guidance, campus resources, referrals, and appropriate specialized services, and maintains records in compliance with SACS-COC accreditation.
- Develops and maintain relationships with academic units, student organizations, and community agencies to provide support for underserved and specialized populations. Develops and maintains working relationships with various groups across campus and external agencies, including state and federal agencies.
- Designs and supports large or complex programs and initiatives to increase the engagement, retention, and success of specialized or underserved student groups.
- Supports Student Conduct by adjudicating student behavior through the individual student conduct processes, including, but not limited to, informal resolutions, educational non-policy meetings, and Student Conduct Committee hearings.
- Participates on multi-disciplinary teams (BIT/Cares, Threat Assessment, Cleary Compliance, etc.)
- May perform other duties as assigned by supervisor.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervisory Responsibility	May be responsible for training, assisting or assigning tasks to others. May provide input to performance reviews of other employees.
