JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	Athletics
Job Function:	Athletics Administration

JOB SUMMARY

Manages various aspects of athletics administration, including hosting special guests, organizing events, managing guest lists, conducting quality control assessments, handling gift inventories, serving as a sport administrator, coordinating athletics tours, maintaining vendor relationships, and overseeing student workers and interns. Responsible for enhancing guest experiences, building relationships, and ensuring compliance with relevant policies and regulations.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serves as the host for special guests of the athletics department, which may include Board of Trustee members, donors, former student-athletes, dignitaries, and other special guests.
- Plans and coordinates routine and special events tailored to create exceptional experiences for our honored guests, ensuring that the athletics department consistently delivers seamless and extraordinary encounters.
- Identifies, selects, and maintains an ongoing list of employees, student-athletes, student workers, and other university and community constituents for athletics administration to host.
- Organizes and executes a wide range of events for employees, student-athletes, student workers, and other stakeholders, aiming to recognize accomplishments and contributions and fostering a sense of achievement within the athletics department.
- Performs routine quality control assessments during athletics competitions and special events. Identifies areas for enhancement and actively participates in collaborative efforts to enhance the overall experience for fans and student-athletes.
- Conducts routine quality control evaluations for athletics facilities, identifying potential areas for improvement in fan experience, employee engagement, and the overall experience of student-athletes. Collaborate to devise strategies for enhancement.
- Selects, identifies, and maintains an inventory of gifts or tokens of appreciation for special guests while adhering to budgetary constraints.
- Serves as sport administrator for one or more of the Department's 21 sports programs. Works directly with the coaching staff in advocating for needs, resolving issues, ensuring compliance, and serving as liaison to the Athletic Director's office. Attends sporting events and advocates and supports student-athletes.
- Serves as athletics administration's primary point of contact for athletics and campus tours.
- Fosters and maintains relationships with local vendors and restaurants, with an emphasis on Auburn Sports Properties partners, to ensure athletics administration is well-received and actively contributes to the local community.
- Identifies, selects, and oversees the athletics administration's student workers and interns within the athletics administration, ensuring their effective integration into the department's operations and projects.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Complies with all applicable National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), Southeastern Conference (SEC) regulations, and University policies and procedures in the performance of job duties.
