JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the 4-H Program Assistant Director, responsible for the efficient day-to-day operations of Alabama 4-H Center that includes a conference and catering center, dorms and cabins, and a licensed school. Directs the mission of serving Alabama youth, including the need for affordable youth events and activities, while balancing a marketable price point for adult and corporate property use. Oversees the demands and special interests of Auburn University, the Alabama Cooperative Extension System, Alabama 4-H, and the Alabama 4-H Foundation Board.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversees the operations of the Center, including administration, programming, food service and dining, maintenance, building and grounds, and housekeeping. Responsible for facility safety, cleanliness, and high customer service standards for all guests.
- Provides leadership for the management of human resource actions for the Center including establishing positions; develops job descriptions, identifies work duties, developing performance assessment procedures, and recruiting, selecting, and hiring staff.
- Oversees the development of the Center’s budget and monitors the expenditures and allocation of funds.
- Secures resources and develops, implements, and evaluates strategies to market the Center to both private and public users. Provides leadership for public relations, fundraising, and the creation of long-term systems that will sustain the Center.
- Works cooperatively to ensure that high quality educational programming is provided to 4-H Youth, other youth, adults, and corporate users. Ensures that the 4-H Center meets and/or exceeds the American Camp Association standards and that all youth programming adheres to the mission, policies, and guidelines of Alabama 4-H, Alabama Cooperative Extension System, and Auburn University.
- Compiles fiscal, marketing, and maintenance reports for the Center. Develops and implements a business plan for the 4-H Center in cooperation with the 4-H Foundation Board of Directors and the Alabama Cooperative Extensions System.
- Collaborates with the 4-H Foundation Board of Directors to identify and develop new Board members. Communicates the Center’s purpose and vision to staff and stakeholders.
- Drafts and assembles policies and procedures as needed for the 4-H Center’s operations in partnership with the State 4-H Office and Auburn University. Establishes and monitors priorities to ensure that staff members conduct business in accordance with set policies and procedures.
- May perform other related duties as assigned by the 4-H Program Assistant Director.
