JOB SUMMARY

The Transition Coordinator supports students with intellectual disabilities throughout their full Auburn experience by leading pre-admission programming, guiding independent-living support in the residence halls, and facilitating post-graduation transition planning. The role co-leads the immersive Summer Academy, oversees the Independent Living Student Worker model, and contributes to program evaluation and continuous improvement for the EAGLES Program and Summer Bridge Academy. Working closely with EAGLES leadership and project partners, the coordinator ensures high-quality student support, federal compliance, and strong outcomes across all phases of the student journey.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Leads and manages the expanded overnight Summer Academy including planning, staffing, logistics, curriculum design, and daily operations to ensure a safe and empowering student experience.
- Serves as Assistant Director of Summer Academy by supervising camp counselors, peer mentors, and student workers while fostering a strengths-based and inclusive environment.
- Oversees the Independent Living Student Worker (ILSW) model, ensuring structured support, accountability, and consistent implementation of independent living instruction.
- Maintains an on-campus presence during key support hours (3:00–6:00 p.m.) to assist students in residence halls and community settings with daily living and wellness routines.
- Leads the Supports and Opportunities to Accessing the Real World (SOAR) transition planning process for students completing the Basic or Advanced Program.
- Coordinates post-program success tracking, including employment, community living, and ongoing education outcomes to meet federal TPSID requirements.
- Supports alumni engagement strategies by maintaining communication and facilitating opportunities for continued involvement and connection.
- Collects, analyzes, and reports data related to independent living instruction, transition outcomes, and program effectiveness to inform continuous improvement.
- Ensures compliance with TPSID grant requirements through effective documentation, collaboration with the external evaluator, and contributions to federal and university reports. Build strong partnerships across campus and the community to enhance student access to inclusive experiences, safety nets, and long-term life success.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
