JOB SUMMARY

The Senior Executive Assistant provides varied executive support services to an University executive which includes coordination of a variety of confidential and sensitive internal and external communications. Directs and oversees office operations including hiring, supervising, and training of office staff; develops and maintains positive liaison relationships with various internal and external customers including employees, executives, trustees, legislators, faculty, students, donors, alumni and the general public. Exercises significant discretion working with sensitive and confidential information in carrying out the directives set forth by the executive.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides executive support to senior leadership. Serves as a liaison between the executive’s office and internal and external units, coordinates the creation and dissemination of confidential information, and articulates expectations for departments and individuals working to implement programs and initiatives. Provides information for review and support and takes necessary actions to carry out such directives. Maintains files and ensures confidentiality related to academic and personnel issues, including individual personal information for those groups and individuals engaging with the office.
- Manages daily administrative operations, including executive-level scheduling and formal and informal correspondence on behalf of the executive and other key administrators. Assesses and prioritizes internal and external requests while resolving business or academic issues independently. Ensures coordination of calendar items including preparation of relevant background materials, locations, confirmations, logistics, agendas, and meeting follow-up items, as appropriate. Compiles and coordinates data for a variety of complex reports, presentations, and oral and written communications.
- Coordinates with multiple units to assist in the resolution of issues and concerns; makes referral to appropriate University department(s) and resources.
- Serves as a resource to interpret and communicate the executive's intent to others employees and stakeholders. Manages internal and external communications including confidential and complex issues by evaluating the situation and referring to appropriate alternate responders and/or responding on behalf of executive as appropriate.
- Develops and maintains positive liaison relationships with various internal and external customers including employees, executives, trustees, legislators, faculty, students, donors, alumni and the general public.
- May provide advice and input on strategic planning efforts.
- May conceptualize, develop, and coordinate complex projects, events, and programs. Coordinates travel arrangements, meeting logistics, and equipment purchases.
- May perform budget-related analysis and approve expenditures.
- May supervise office operations and administrative functions. May supervise, train, and provide performance input for assigned administrative staff.
