Job Function:

JOB SUMMARY

Provides executive level administrative support for the Alabama Cooperative Extension System (ACES). Under general supervision by the ACES Director, the Executive Assistant of Alabama Cooperative Extension System manages office operations, develops documents both internal and external to ACES including, but not limited to, county, state, and federal partners, external stakeholder groups, and ACES auxiliary units (AL 4-H Center, AL 4-H Foundation, County Offices, and the Graham Farm and Nature Center). This position works independently on ongoing and special projects, exercises discretion, and deals with information on a sensitive and confidential nature.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assists the Director of the Alabama Cooperative Extension System (ACES) for all meetings, maintains files, calendars, and confidential information. Coordinates and maintains the Director’s calendar and schedules and resolves scheduling conflicts. Plans and coordinates meetings with different groups, committees, and individuals: receptions and other events consisting of determining dates, location, menu, set up, and ordering whatever is needed for the event(s). Records and transcribes minutes of meetings for record as needed.
- Assists with the Director’s calendar and scheduling. Coordinates complicated travel arrangements and reimbursement requests for the Associate Director(s) and other members of the leadership team(s) as requested.
- Compiles information and prepares reports/presentations and drafts routine correspondence, agendas, etc.
- Assists with the Director’s calendar and scheduling. Prepares complicated travel assignments and reimbursements. Coordinates complicated travel arrangements for the Associate Director(s) and the Assistant Director of Program Development and Grants as well as travel arrangements/reimbursements.
- Interacts with Auburn University and Alabama A&M University (AAMU) officials and special groups and maintains positive relationships throughout Auburn University and AAMU.
- Serves as the Directors liaison in supporting the ACES Disaster/Emergency Preparedness Response/Recovery/Relief Teams statewide. This function serves as a conduit to other county, state and federal partners (County officials, state entities such as ADEM, and federal agencies such as USDA).
- Serves as the backup to the administrative support functions for all Assistant Directors for County Operations (seven regions).
- Coordinates meetings specific to ACES for both campuses by working with staff on both campuses for scheduling, reserving meeting rooms, recording and transcribing minutes for record, and assisting in other administrative functions (document preparation and review, presentation preparation, spreadsheets, etc.).
- Assists the Director in meeting preparation specific to Southern Region Workgroups, Southern Region Program Leadership Network, and other leadership events throughout the year.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serves as the AU United Way lead for all of ACES statewide.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
