JOB SUMMARY

Manages the financial data process and supervises staff in calculating, posting, and verifying financial data for the Tigers Unlimited Foundation (TUF).

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversees TUF's financial management to include processing gifts, ticket purchases, and any amounts due and outstanding.
- Supervises the Athletic Gift Specialist and Financial Associate, overseeing donation processing, new account creation, and customer service operations for ticketing and donor relations. Leads and mentors staff, fostering professional growth and high performance while ensuring exceptional service delivery and compliance with university policies. Manages employee performance, hiring, and professional development, including recruitment, training, and disciplinary actions.
- Responsible for the accurate examination, coding, and processing of donations for TUF and Auburn University Athletics in the Paciolan System, ensuring compliance with Auburn University (AU), TUF, and IRS guidelines. Manages cash/check deposits, web transactions, and stock payments, ensuring timely and accurate processing.
- Acts as a primary point of contact for Tigers Unlimited donors, providing account support, resolving inquiries, and ensuring a high level of donor engagement. Meets with donors in person and via phone to discuss their accounts, pledges, and priority program payments. Provides detailed information and follow-up on donor recognition levels, account status, and TUF procedures. Maintains relationships and contact with donors to ensure payment of outstanding amounts.
- Assists with financial reconciliations for athletics and TUF accounts, ensuring accuracy between Banner and Paciolan systems. Supports ticket sales reconciliation and donor-related financial projects, leveraging expertise in donor information management and Paciolan system functionality.
