JOB SUMMARY

The Program Administrator, Human Resource Development (HRD) administers and coordinates the development, implementation, and evaluation of performance and training development programs, projects, and initiatives. This position serves as a functional system administrator to recommend and initiate system changes to meet University needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Administers employee training and development programs for the AU and AUM campuses. Collaborates with managers, employees, and trainers to coordinate the time and location of training and ensures necessary resources and facilities are available to properly conduct classes. Inputs, updates, and tracks courses and attendees in the Learning Management System (LMS). Trains and supports learners in utilizing LMS technology for professional and developmental opportunities. Collaborates with facilitators and subject matter experts to execute the learning and development training schedule.
- Develops, publishes, and facilitates annual syllabi to include the leadership development pathway. Coordinates with HRD and HR Communications to promote HRD programs through advertisements, campus-wide communications, and the HRD web page. Publishes course descriptions and class schedules to engage employees.
- Administers the University's Performance Development program for supervisors and employees. Collaborates with UHR stakeholders to create annual guidelines and timeline. Conducts periodic audits to ensure compliance, to escalate issues, and to collaborate with HR systems administrators and external vendors. Trains and supports all users on the Performance Development System.
- Identifies and promptly addresses system functionality issues for both performance development and learning management systems. Continuously identifies process enhancements, and partners with both internal stakeholders and vendors to initiate improvements. Reviews and responds to accommodation requests.
- Analyzes program outcome data to recommend solutions, track training, and measure performance aligned with organizational objectives. Creates standard and customized reports to support HR's strategic direction.
- Works with the Dir, Student Financial Services to resolve any escalated issues regarding the Employee Education Benefit (EEB) and Dependent Education Benefit (DEB) requests. Serves as the backup approver for EEB and DEB requests.
- May facilitate and/or contribute to an engaging HRD training course and the university's leadership development program.
- Performs other related duties as assigned.
