JOB SUMMARY

The Manager, Employee Records oversees the Human Resources Records Administration team, ensuring the accuracy and safeguarding of employee data for all active Auburn University and Auburn University at Montgomery employees. Oversees the daily record keeping, records initiatives, personnel file management, reporting, and the integration of paper and electronic records across diverse platforms. Develops efficient policies and processes while collaborating with IT professionals for optimal record-keeping systems and implementation of innovative solutions for efficient data storage and access.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversees and manages the administration of employee records management processes and services and ensures efficient and professional customer service while maintaining confidentiality.
- Oversees and manages daily operations within the Records Management team, ensuring adherence to organizational policies, procedures, and regulations. Ensures daily services and tasks are completed on time, such as the timely approval of Electronic Personnel Action Forms (EPAF) submissions, including changes, corrections, and follow-ups, in accordance with established timelines.
- Oversees and conducts audits of HR records data and personnel files and reviews dashboards and error reports in accordance with quality control standards. Identifies, resolves, and troubleshoots data errors and issues to maintain data integrity, ensuring accurate record-keeping. Proactively and regularly monitors and analyzes employee record systems for accuracy, access to records data, and compliance. Manages the elimination of employee records while dealing with highly confidential information and acts in accordance with state and federal regulatory requirements.
- Advises and provides assistance and resources to central human resources, campus HR liaisons, managers, and supervisors to enhance process efficiency and maximize data utilization.
- Oversees record-keeping processes, including establishing procedures, making recommendations on process improvements, training operational staff, and creating training documents outlining procedures regarding appropriate record-keeping. Supports university HR by collaborating to train colleagues and end-users on new processes and functionality, including updating training materials and/or providing one-on-one training sessions.
- Oversees proper data collection and submission when working with external audits, I-9 federal audits, or internal university audits.
- Participates and collaborates in software vetting, vendor relations, research, acquisition, and/or providing input about the employee record keeping system of choice. Recommends modifications to the record-keeping processes as necessary.
- Collaborates with internal business administration support staff to design and maintain accurate mapping and sustainable integrity of all data tables within internal human resources systems (Banner). Manages and ensures interface data files are accurately transferred to third-party solution vendors such as Equifax.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Prepares personnel information for transmission to the Alabama Department of Labor and State of Alabama new hire reporting. Manages HR record compliance tasks, including employment verifications, internal and external audit responses, state and federal data collection mandates, handling of legal requests, and management of open records requests. Maintains strict confidentiality for all received requests, including legal matters, audits, terminations, and contracts.
- Monitors and verifies access levels to information retained in the HR enterprise system (Xtender) and/or other outsourced solutions. Requests access removal as needed.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Supervisory Responsibility	Full supervisory responsibility for other employees is a major responsibility and includes training, evaluating, and making or recommending pay, promotion or other employment decisions.
