JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Executive Director, Human Resources & Research Talent Initiatives, this position is responsible for leading and managing the university's employee relations function to foster a positive, productive, and inclusive work environment. Develops effective relationships with senior university and campus leadership to maintain an effective employee relations strategy and provides consultation to campus management on human resources-related issues and compliance. Provides oversight to a team that leads the campus in specialized consultation for employee discipline issues, employee relations policy and procedures, and programs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develops and implements employee relations strategies aligned with AU's mission and values, and advises senior leadership on employee relations trends, risks, and best practices.
- Leads and manages the employee relations department in the areas of problem resolution, employee relations, and employee discipline. Develops, recommends, and implements approved organization-wide employee relations policies and practices. Ensures the uniform and equitable application of relevant federal and state laws and regulations (Title VII, ADA, FMLA, EEO, FLSA, etc.) and AU policies and procedures.
- Advises both employees and management regarding employee relations policies, procedures, and documentation. Researches, identifies, and analyzes specific employee relations concerns and provides guidance and expert recommendations to resolve work-related issues, including job performance and progressive discipline.
- In consultation with the Office of Equal Opportunity, oversees complex investigations involving highly sensitive matters, including harassment, discrimination, and retaliation, to document findings and make recommendations on appropriate actions.
- Oversees and conducts complex investigations regarding other work-related matters to document findings and make recommendations on appropriate actions.
- Directs or consults on the employee grievance process, ensuring compliance and necessary documentation is appropriate. Responsible for leading and directing reductions in force and lay-offs. Collaborates with other UHR departments to facilitate related processes and identify appropriate recommendations.
- Manages the daily operations of the Employee Relations team to include, but not limited to, monitoring expenses and managing budget resources, evaluating the structure and team plan for continual improvement. Serves as a liaison with vendors and consultants and provides individuals with professional and personal growth. Monitors and analyzes employee relations metrics and trends to inform decision-making.
- Frequently collaborates with UHR, campus, and University leadership, HR Liaisons, employee supervisors, legal counsel, and compliance teams to support an inclusive and equitable workplace. Serves on various university committees, contributing expertise in employee relation issues and investigations.
