JOB SUMMARY

Under minimum supervision, removes, receives, organizes, inventories, and accounts for state and federally funded property from Auburn University and Alabama Cooperative Extension Service (ACES) divisions. Monitors property through the final disposition (transfer, sale, disposal, etc.) of said property.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Receives, organizes, and prepares for the removal of state and/or federally-funded property from over 300 departments on campus and ACES. Verifies appropriate items to be surplus utilizing the Surplus Work Order submitted by the department. Schedules pick-up time with the department and coordinates the pick-up utilizing students, when necessary. Determines which property retains monetary value or usefulness to the campus, which property should be disposed of, and which items should be disposed of through public sale.
- Accounts for all Auburn University asset tags confirming surplus status while ensuring compliance with all applicable state and federal property laws. Ensures that federally owned items are not picked up prior to obtaining written consent from the Federal Department that owns the property.
- Catalogs and tracks items received; enters data correctly and efficiently in the database. Runs reports and provides to various internal parties, such as vendor vouchers, journal vouchers, collection reports, inventory reports, etc. Forwards information to Property Services in a timely manner for inventory purposes.
- Schedules appointments with Alabama state-funded agencies that are interested in the surplus property and assists in locating items. Ensures items taken are documented in the inventory systems for reporting purposes.
- Posts items and conducts sales on public forums. Creates advertisements and ensures all are conducted within Alabama State Property Laws. Contacts bid winners and schedules appointments for payment and pickup. Accurately and efficiently records all transactions in the Surplus Property system, and transfers data to Property Services to ensure items are removed from inventory. Compiles and verifies funds generated from sales, executes collection reports, and sends them to the Bursar's Office.
- Coordinates with and generates work orders to other service support units to assist with the transport of items. Ensures accounting/verification of items upon arrival are processed appropriately.
- Assists with and trains other employees (student and non-student) in inventory collections and disposal of surplus.
- Trains and evaluates Surplus Property staff in handling forms, and deposits, processing sales and bids, surplus tagging, and transfer procedures.
- May manage the Surplus Property office in the absence of the Manager.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
