JOB SUMMARY

The Employee Records Specialist I, operating within University Human Resources (UHR), is responsible for ensuring the integrity, accuracy and compliance of employee records for all university-affiliated personnel, including faculty, staff, students, temporary workers, affiliates, and contractors. This position serves as a data steward for UHR information within the university's enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems, overseeing personnel actions and documentation in alignment with institutional policies, state regulations, and audit requirements. The Specialist I serves as a key resource for timekeepers and campus stakeholders, supports employment and wage verification processes, and contributes to continuous improvement initiatives with the Employee Records unit.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Electronic Personnel Action Form (EPAF) Processing: Reviews, updates, and enters EPAFs for various employment actions including new hires, pay adjustments, supervisory updates, departmental transfers, and terminations. Researches submissions to ensure accuracy prior to EPAF processing. Retrieves and verifies support documentation to meet compliance standards, including state auditor requirements.
- Employee Records Maintenance: Scans, indexes, and retains records in a web-based filing system, ensuring they are organized and easily retrievable upon request. Inactivates employee records according to established protocols to maintain system integrity and support timely access to accurate information.
- Stakeholder Collaboration & Issue Resolution: Coordinates with the Onboarding Center, HR Liaisons, and campus departments to verify documentation and resolve discrepancies. Serves as a point of contact for timekeepers and departmental staff, fostering relationships, providing guidance, and promoting adherence to recordkeeping policies and procedures.
- Employment Verification Processing: Processes and responds to wage and employment verification requests in accordance with university guidelines. Troubleshoots issues, advises stakeholders on procedures, and ensures confidentiality in handling sensitive information.
- Contributes to Unit Projects and Initiatives: Participates in special projects aimed at enhancing operational efficiency and accuracy with the Employee Records unit. Keeps the unit manager informed of emerging issues and completes additional duties as assigned.
