Auburn University Job Description

Job Title: Mgr, Institutional Compliance
Job Code: EE21
FLSA status: Exempt

Job Summary

Reporting to the Executive Director, Institutional Compliance & Privacy, the Mgr, Institutional Compliance is responsible for coordinating compliance with the University's policies and programs affecting youth protection at Auburn University's main campus, AU-Montgomery (AUM), Alabama Cooperative Extension System (ACES), and Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station (AAES). This position provides assistance with oversight, coordination, and assessment of the University's (AU/AUM/AAES/ACES) compliance activities with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and with university policies.

Essential Functions

1. Develops, implements, and monitors a program for protection of minors for AU, AUM, ACES, and AAES based on industry standards for youth programs and other regulatory requirements related to Youth Protection Program compliance. Provides guidance and interpretation of applicable university policies related to youth protection and oversees compliance with the operational requirements of these policies.

2. Manages an inventory and database of program information. Reviews and approves documents and submitted information associated with registration of university-sponsored and third party programs involving minors.

3. Monitors background clearance requirements for persons working within university-sponsored youth programs. Regularly assesses youth program risks and compliance trends and proposes policy updates.

4. Performs on-site visits and reviews of youth programs to assess compliance with the Youth Protection Policy. Develops reports as requested by university leadership.

5. Leads internal stakeholders to develop, coordinate, and implement incident response policies, procedures, and protocols to respond to reports of child abuse, neglect, or other escalated incidents involving youth.

6. Manages and enhances the Compliance Data Reporting Initiative, working with distributed compliance partners to collect information on their compliance responsibilities, activities, and perceived risks. Annually, works with the Institutional Compliance Committee and Division of Institutional Compliance & Privacy professionals to present an overall summary of the data to university senior leadership and the Board of Trustees.

7. Responsible for creating and updating, collaboratively or independently as appropriate, compliance training content for identified compliance training gaps. Delivers in-person training to individuals and groups as necessary on a variety of regulatory compliance and policy areas, including youth protection.

8. Leads the implementation and ongoing management of Policy Management software suite. Provides for proper user access, workflows and general system support to policy drafters, reviewers, and approvers. Works with selected software vendor to enhance the capabilities of the software as desired.

9. Cultivates strong relationships with campus constituents to enhance the university's culture of compliance and ethics. Serves as a primary resource to provide advice & guidance to university personnel consistent with laws and policies.
