JOB SUMMARY

The Bookstore Logistics Manager oversees all receiving and inventory control functions within the Bookstore, ensuring efficient and accurate handling of merchandise. This role provides direct supervision of the receiving team and serves as the primary liaison to the Store Director regarding operational needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Supervises all receiving department staff, including scheduling, performance management, timekeeping, and resolution of personnel matters.
- Leads cultural and operational improvements by setting expectations, modeling desired behaviors, and driving performance toward team and individual goals.
- Provides ongoing coaching, training, and development to ensure staff members are equipped to meet operational standards and succeed in their roles.
- Manages all warehouse and back-of-house logistics, including receiving, disbursement, stock and non-stock ordering, returns, releases, and cycle counting.
- Reviews operational and financial reports to verify that costs, charges, and returns are accurately recorded.
- Ensures receiving accuracy by monitoring processes and confirming that receipt logs are properly attached to purchase orders in NetSuite.
- Enforces proper use of material-handling equipment and adherence to storage, safety, and compliance standards across all store operations.
- Maintains the integrity of inventory records by monitoring documentation practices and ensuring accuracy in all materials tracking.
- Evaluates supplier performance to ensure alignment with quality, delivery, and service expectations.
- Provides supervisory support across store operations and serves as a key holder, contributing to overall leadership and daily store management.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES
