JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Bookstore Communication & Marketing Manager, the Online Marketing & Sales Specialist manages the e-commerce operation at the Bookstore to include website analysis and optimization, sales growth, improving the user experience, and online order fulfillment.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Responsible for the overall content of the Bookstore website, including overall site appearance, written copy for landing pages, curation of merchandise for online catalogs, and creation and maintenance of individual product pages with detailed product copy and description.
- Creates the best possible e-commerce experience for Bookstore customers within the current point-of-sale system, including accessibility of website content and ADA compliance, and exemplary customer service.
- Optimizes the Bookstore website to increase sales, limit bounce rate, improve search engine optimization, and increase prominence in search engine results.
- Oversees all steps of the order fulfillment process, including merchandise selection, charging, shipment, and customer service.
- Analyzes and measures site performance using Google Analytics and Semrush, or similar tools, and adjusts content to increase user satisfaction and boost visibility.
- Maintains the Bookstore website's paid digital advertising campaigns to drive website traffic, including ad copy, keyword selection and bidding, and ad relevance.
- Collaborates with the Marketing Manager to plan, promote, and implement events to online customers, and tracks the success of the promotion.
- Performs cost analysis of the online ordering department to ensure profitability, including shipping costs, labor costs, and shipping supply costs. Forecasts daily, monthly, and yearly sales for online orders and produces reports based off of previous years' sales figures and trends.
- Assists as needed during busy periods with processing orders and resolving customer service issues or wherever there may be a need.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
