JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Vice President of Institutional Compliance & Security, this position exercises primary responsibility with a strategic focus and accountability for the areas of finance, budget, human resources, purchasing, compliance, and support services management for Institutional Compliance and Security.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides executive support to the Vice President of Institutional Compliance & Security. Serves as the liaison between the executive's office and internal and external units, coordinates the creation and dissemination of confidential information, and articulates expectations for departments and individuals working to implement programs and initiatives. Provides information for review and support and takes necessary actions to carry out such directives. Maintains files and ensures confidentiality related to personnel issues, including individual personal information for those groups and individuals engaging with the office.
- Performs daily office management tasks to include executive-level scheduling, both formal and informal correspondence on behalf of the executive and other key administrators. Assesses and prioritizes internal and external requests while resolving business issues independently. Ensures coordination of calendar items including preparation of relevant background materials, locations, confirmations, logistics, agendas, and meeting follow-up items, as appropriate. Compiles and coordinates data for variety of complex reports, presentations, and oral/written communications.
- Coordinating with multiple units to assist in the resolution of issues and concerns; makes referral to appropriate University department(s) and resources.
- Serves as a resource to interpret and communicate the executive's intent to other employees and stakeholders. Manages internal and external communications including confidential and complex issues by evaluating the situation and referring to appropriate alternate responders and/or responding on behalf of executive as appropriate.
- Develops and maintains positive liaison relationships with various internal and external customers including employees, executives, trustees, legislators, faculty, students, donors, alumni, and the general public.
- Performs budget-related analysis and approves expenditures. May supervise office operations and administrative functions.
- Provides advice and input on financial, budgetary, and strategic planning efforts.
- May conceptualize, develop, and coordinate complex projects, events, and programs. Coordinates travel arrangements, meeting logistics, and equipment purchases.
- May supervise, train, and provide performance input for assigned administrative staff.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
