JOB SUMMARY

The Assistant Vice President, Research Accounting & Financial Compliance provides executive leadership and strategic direction for the Contracts & Grants Accounting (CGA) department, ensuring all sponsored project accounts are established, maintained, and monitored in full compliance with Federal and State regulations and university policy. This role drives long-term strategic planning initiatives to strengthen financial reporting, compliance frameworks, and resource allocation, while fostering collaboration across departments and serving as a senior liaison with external auditors and regulatory agencies.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides executive leadership and strategic oversight of accounting processes for sponsored projects, ensuring financial reporting aligns with Federal and State regulations as well as university policy.
- Develops and executes strategic planning initiatives to strengthen compliance frameworks, optimize financial reporting systems, and enhance institutional accountability.
- Oversees preparation of accounting schedules and reports for the annual financial report and A-133 audit, collaborating with the Controller and independent CPA to ensure accuracy and transparency.
- Champions campus-wide training and professional development, delivering formal and informal sessions on Federal regulations, university policies, and procedures to departmental administrators and contracts and grants personnel.
- Directs and verifies indirect cost recovery, distribution, and budget reporting, ensuring alignment with university policies and long-term financial strategies.
- Maintains Federally required certification of effort on sponsored projects and guides strategic decision-making related to compliance and resource allocation.
- Partners with the Controller and Financial Reporting teams to review, implement, and strengthen Federal regulations, policies, procedures, and internal controls, particularly in relation to indirect cost studies and rate negotiations.
- Serves as a senior liaison and strategic advisor between the university and external auditors during post-award audits of contracts and grants, ensuring institutional priorities and compliance standards are upheld.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
