JOB SUMMARY

This position oversees the day to day operations of Contracts and Grants Accounting, a designated campus unit responsible for all financial post-award functions involving Sponsored Research, Sponsored Instruction, and other Sponsored activities. Ensures support to the University's research mission by overseeing compliance with federal regulations, state law, and university policies and procedures.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Prepares, reviews, edits and signs invoices and financial reports, certifying accuracy, consistency and compliance with institutional, state, federal, and other regulations
- Provides a final review of and approves for processing into Banner all non-salary cost transfer documents involving sponsored programs or cost share FOPs. Ensures the cost transfers are submitted in accordance with the AU DEC Policy, include the appropriate documentation, conform to the requirements of the sponsored agreement or costing standards, adequately explain the reason for the transfer, and fully substantiate the recording of the cost onto a sponsored fund
- Participates in and contributes to the design, development, delivery, and evaluation of contract and grant educational programs to implement regulations, policies and procedures appropriate for the audience assuring consistency with institutional research and training goals.
- Provides senior-level assistance to faculty and staff in relation to financial management of sponsored programs including conducting workshops as needed and staying abreast of federal regulations regarding sponsored programs. Participates in and represents CGA in select training/orientation opportunities. Shares the mission of CGA and communicates importance of compliance.
- Provides guidance to all levels of Contracts & Grants Accounting staff in the performance of their duties to ensure compliance with regulatory and departmental standards. Receives escalated problems from team managers or accountants and determines appropriate solutions, considering the applicable governing regulation, accounting principle, and/or university policy.
- Provides guidance to Auburn University management and staff regarding post-award financial policies and procedures, internal controls, and risk management and makes recommendations for improvements. Communicates with employees to inform and advise regarding regulatory or procedural matters. Works with internal or external auditors where necessary to explain CGA's position, approach, understanding, and application of governing regulations and requirements.
- Advocates, formulates, and implements policies, procedures, programs and projects for improved management and compliance of externally funded programs.
- Manages assigned staff and leads recruitment of positions including reviewing resumes, participating in interviews, and conducting performance review evaluations. Assists in resolving employee relations issues.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides sponsored programs' accounts receivable balances and reconciling schedules for annual financial statement preparation. Maintains monthly reconciliation of A/R balances for outstanding receivables monitoring. Works with the Controller's office to submit schedules within the established guidelines and explains and or addresses non-conforming or unreconciling items. Awareness of GAAP, financial statements, and the bigger picture of general university and/or business process and functions are necessary.
