Job Family:	University Advancement
Job Function:	Engagement, Annual Giving, & Campaign

JOB SUMMARY

Manages all aspects of Development related programs, services, fundraisers, and/or events through one-self or others to support engagement with a college or school's stakeholders, which includes alumni, donors, students, faculty, and staff. Provides opportunity through programs to identify potential prospects. Participates in the soliciting of gifts and/or memberships through program activities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides the essential day-to-day management, planning, development, and implementation of programs/services/fundraisers/events to support engagement and identification of potential prospects within a college or school. Ensures that goals and objectives are accomplished within the prescribed time frames and other parameters.
- Attends, assists, and participates in events and functions as necessary to promote programs. Engages with alumni, donors, students, faculty, and staff to increase engagement and awareness of programs.
- Recruits members/participants for programs. Creates and maintains record of contacts and constituents. Builds relationships by developing and promoting interaction between parties.
- Participates and assists in the solicitation of gifts/memberships through person-to-person visits, group visits, and/or phone contacts. Identifies and recommends individuals, corporations, or groups that qualify as prospective donors and ensures information is forwarded to appropriate Development colleagues and contacts.
- Provides stewardship to include acknowledging and showing gratitude for donating/joining programs either by letter, phone call, and/or participating in/attending events and function for donors.
- Through one-self or others, completes daily operational duties for programs or events to include coordination and organization of activities, meetings, and events as well as activities such as mailings, phone calls, emails, renewals, membership lists, membership dues, etc. Retrieves and sorts mail, checks, and gifts received for programs.
- Responsible for routine tasks associated with programs/services/events to include but not limited to internal or external promotional activities, preparing reports, presenting statistics and updates, etc.
- Manages and processes financial documentation such as vendor vouchers, travel expenses, and employee reimbursements accurately and according to University policies and procedures.
- Responsible for maintaining records relating to Development. Utilizes services of central Development in assisting Development Officers and staff to qualify prospects for programs. Maintains records, reports, and information on alumni, friends, corporations, foundations, and campus departments relating to programs.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high-levels of autonomy.
