JOB SUMMARY

The Engagement Program Specialist engages alumni, donors, students, parents, and staff to cultivate and solicit philanthropic support. Serves as a liaison to donors and stakeholders to continue to sustain fundraising success and increase engagement and awareness of programs and departments. Responsible for sharing updates and the specific needs of the various departments with the goal of elevating the Auburn Student Experience.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Identifies, recruits, cultivates, and encourages volunteers to engage in interest aligned programs that encourage resource development and establish meaningful conversations.
- Engages with alumni, donors, students, parents, and staff to increase engagement and awareness of programs and departments. Creates, plans, and coordinates events to engage the various groups.
- Refers individuals, corporations, or groups that qualify as prospective donors and ensures information is forwarded to relevant Development Officers.
- Collaborates with Advancement partners to maintain records, reports, and information on alumni, friends, corporations, and foundations. Enters and keeps records for key Alumni and other constituents.
- Communicates opportunities of participation to alumni and friends by regular engagement through telephone calls, emails and other correspondence.
- Establishes and enhances partnerships within the specific unit and across Advancement by providing updated content regarding aspects of key programs and services.
- Works in partnership with the engagement team in efforts to recognize alumni, key volunteers, donors, and ensures coordination and timing of messaging.
- Performs other related duties as needed.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high-levels of autonomy.
