JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	University Advancement
Job Function:	Major & Principal Gifts

JOB SUMMARY

The Senior Director of Advancement Campaign & Principal Gift Operations collaborates with Advancement Senior Leadership, University Leadership, and Philanthropic teams; and manages all aspects of a university-wide comprehensive fundraising campaign, including planning and execution, and principal gifts operations management. Reporting to the Associate Vice President of Philanthropy, this role leads the design and implementation of a multi-year comprehensive campaign aimed at securing transformative philanthropic support for the institution.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Collaborates with Advancement Senior Leadership and other university leaders to develop, refine, and implement long-term campaign strategies aligned with institutional priorities and goals outlined in the university's Grounded and Groundbreaking strategic plan.
- In collaboration with the Associate Vice President of Philanthropy and consultation with the Senior Vice President of Advancement manages the planning and execution of Auburn's comprehensive fundraising campaign, including timelines detailing the phases of the campaign, and coordinating campaign volunteer leadership activities and constituency campaign committees.
- Serves as the primary point of contact for campaign progress, working across departments to ensure a unified approach to donor engagement and communication.
- Partners with internal stakeholders to develop compelling campaign messaging and donor collateral.
- Works with Advancement Events to recommend the scope, nature, location, and timing of campaign events and meetings. Coordinates with appropriate Advancement leadership and teams, as well as vendors and consultants.
- Works closely with the Associate Vice President of Philanthropy to manage Principal Gift operations and to design and manage strategic initiatives and planning for high-level prospect identification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship of principal gift prospects/donors.
- Collaborates with Advancement teams and staff to create individualized engagement and solicitation strategies for key donors, ensuring seamless coordination with Advancement and University leadership.
- Collaborates with internal partners, including senior administration, deans, faculty, frontline fundraising teams and volunteers to advance campaign objectives.
- Achieves campaign and principal gift fundraising goals by tracking and analyzing campaign metrics, providing regular updates to leadership, and adjusting strategies based on progress and trends, consistently meeting or exceeding targets.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high levels of autonomy.
