JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	University Advancement
Job Function:	Advancement Operations

JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Senior Director of Engagement and Experience, the Director of Advancement Experience oversees a team of event and engagement specialists to execute events and experiences for Auburn Advancement. Develops tactical plans, aligns resources, and implements plans to execute customized engagement experiences for signature alumni association events, central advancement events, and unit or college events that meet advancement goals. Partnering across Auburn Advancement and Auburn University, the Director produces, architects, and collaboratively implements events and experiences to deepen the relationships and enhance the engagement of Auburn constituents. Collaborating across all areas, the Director embraces a service mentality and cross functional focus.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Leads a team of event and experience staff to execute events and experiences for Auburn Advancement and ensures a best-in-class engagement for Auburn constituents.
- Facilitates enterprise-wide training and resources to drive engagement, participation, and retention.
- Serves as a strategic partner to Advancement teams in units and colleges to provide consistent engagement experiences for stakeholders and elevate the standards.
- Partners closely with Director of Donor Experience to execute donor events and programs.
- Facilitates planning, production, and execution of constituent experiences, events, and engagements utilizing all mediums and varied resources.
- Utilizes emerging tools, technologies, and partners to deliver industry leading stewardship and alumni and donor success.
- Creates remarkable experiences to build loyalty, reduce churn, and drive success.
- The nature of this role is highly externally focused, requiring frequent travel and meetings on and off campus during regular and non-traditional business hours, and is therefore expected to operate with high-levels of autonomy.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
