JOB SUMMARY

The Advancement Engagement Facilitator cultivates and strengthens relationships between Auburn University and its stakeholders. This involves understanding, assessing, coordinating, and disseminating diverse opportunities for involvement, volunteering, and philanthropy among Auburn's stakeholders. Establishes and fosters collaborations across campus to stay abreast of the wide range of engagement and philanthropic opportunities, ensuring their impact and sustainability.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Collaborates with campus partners, student organizations, and community collaborators to effectively disseminate information through various communication channels regarding available opportunities. Responsible for presenting and implementing comprehensive strategies to boost awareness across Auburn University's campus, focusing on promoting volunteer opportunities, campus involvement, and pathways for philanthropy.
- Provides timely guidance to stakeholders, directing inquiries to the appropriate contacts for advancement, fundraising, and engagement matters.
- Serves as the production catalyst for Auburn Giving and the Regional Engagement teams by facilitating the identification, development, and execution of opportunities for engagement, involvement, and philanthropy opportunities. Responsible for determining the effectiveness and impact of these opportunities as well as creating and maintaining an internal repository. Promotes and encourages stakeholder involvement and communicates the various benefits of participating in such opportunities to relevant stakeholders. Enhances the efficiency of the advancement process by collaborating with colleagues to enhance stakeholder experiences.
- Advises the Executive Director on innovative ways to attract and retain engaged stakeholders, by providing creative solutions that address emerging trends or challenges.
- Works closely with Auburn Giving Officers and Regional Engagement Officers by identifying compelling stories related to philanthropy, alumni success, and community impact. Collaborates with the Advancement Marketing team to amplify purposeful stories that craft engaging narratives that resonate with stakeholders ultimately expanding awareness and inspiring action.
- Collaborates with Advancement colleagues to create engaging marketing materials for the Creed Grants Program by highlighting impacts and benefits. Identifies deserving grant recipients aligned with the program's overall mission and facilitates the application process for grant awards.
