JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Executive Director, Alumni Engagement, the Regional Engagement Officer is a senior role responsible for fostering and maintaining deep, meaningful connections between Auburn University and Auburn Alumni. This role involves leading the cultivation of connections and understanding individualized Auburn-based affinity through advanced pathways for involvement, volunteering, and giving. The Regional Engagement Officer will lead engagement initiatives within a specific geographic region, serving as a lead advisor for Auburn Clubs, Alumni Affiliates, and Councils, and maintain collaborative partnerships across campus.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lead the promotion of engagement, involvement, and retention of Auburn alumni and stakeholders through strategic and innovative outreach and engagement methods.
- Serve as the primary liaison for a designated geographic region of Auburn stakeholders, with full autonomy.
- Lead the execution of complex engagement initiatives that bolster philanthropic support and strengthen relationships with alumni, donors, faculty, staff, and students.
- Develop and implement strategies to promote engagement through established and new volunteer networks to cultivate a deep affinity to the institution.
- Serve as the senior Auburn Advancement advisor for volunteer leaders in Auburn Clubs, Alumni Affiliates, and Councils.
- Represent Auburn Advancement at high-profile regional events and lead the hosting of diverse engagement opportunities across an assigned region.
- Partner with volunteer leaders to leverage volunteer-driven pathways for engagement and involvement, while innovating and deploying additional initiatives to activate new pathways for engagement.
- Maintain and cultivate collaborative partnerships across the campus to facilitate a wide range of engagement opportunities that are accessible, impactful, and sustainable.
