Advanced Hiking
Phyllis Stanaland, Instructor
June 6, 13, 20; July 11, 18, 25 | 8:30 am - 11:30 am | Chewacla
Participants will need to pay the entrance fee of $4.00 in person (People 62 and older are $2.00)
This advanced hiking course is for experienced hikers and features challenging terrain and distances. Hikes alternate between Chewacla State Park and other sites, starting at 8:30 AM. Expect 6+ mile trails, intensified by summer conditions. Primary destinations include Chewacla State Park and Columbus River Walk/Dragonfly. Bring 2 liters of water, snacks, and lunch. Carpooling from Sunny Slope is common, with a $5 fee per ride at term-end to support drivers.
Required: A demonstration of your hiking proficiency before the first class.
Two hiking poles are recommended. A small day pack is suggested.

Phyllis Stanaland began hiking with OLLI Hikers in 2018. Having been an avid walker for several years, this presented a welcomed challenge. She has experienced physical progress, and the camaraderie with other hikers has been a special plus.

African American Landscapes and History of Alabama
Elijah Gaddis, Instructor
June 6, 13, 20 | 11:30 am - 1:00 pm | Sunny Slope Classroom
This course will examine selected topics in Alabama’s history by looking at the world around us. We’ll approach the study of the past through landscapes, uncovering untold or little-remembered topics.

Anticipatory Grief - What is it? How to Recognize it?
Leisa Askew, Instructor
June 4, 11, 18 | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Anticipatory grief refers to a feeling of grief before an impending loss. Most people don’t recognize this within themselves. These sessions will review the different grief stages and provide coping skills and resources for grief and loss.

Leisa Askew is a licensed social worker with 27 years of experience working with an aging population, a certified Dementia Care Specialist, and an Aging Resource Specialist.
The Battle of Fort Blakeley and the Civil War Campaign for Mobile
Mike Bunn, Instructor
June 12 | 10:30 am - 12:00 pm | OLLI Shares UAH-Zoom
Explore the pivotal events of April 9, 1865, when approximately sixteen thousand Union troops launched a bold assault on Fort Blakeley, a three-mile-long line of earthworks. This assault marked the climax of a weeks-long campaign that led to the capture of Mobile—the last major Southern city in Confederate hands. This course provides insight into the chaos of this historic moment along the Mobile-Tensaw Delta, delving into Alabama’s largest Civil War battlefield.

Mike Bunn, Director of Historic Blakeley State Park in Spanish Fort, Alabama, is the author or co-author of several books, including Fort Stoddert: American Sentinel on the Mobile River, 1799-1814; Fourteenth Colony: The Forgotten Story of the Gulf South During America’s Revolutionary Era; and The Assault on Fort Blakeley: “The Thunder and Lightning of Battle.”

July 11, 18, 25 | 11:30 am - 1:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Participants will refine their drawing abilities through practical exercises. They will explore composition, blending, and values using provided photographs as references. Additionally, attention will be given to the significance of lost and found edges. Participants will enhance their skills by meticulously completing a variety of pencil drawings, emphasizing attention to detail throughout the process.
Required materials to be purchased by the member:
- (4) #2 pencils
- (4) sheets of drawing paper (11in X 14in – at least 80# weight)
- Ruler
- Eraser

Scott Melville has regularly painted for nearly 40 years and has enjoyed pencil drawing for the last seven years.

Causes and Tactics in the Civil War
John Mason, Instructor
July 8, 9 | 1:15 pm - 2:45 pm | OLLI Shares UAH-Zoom
Learn why some historians believe a Civil War was inevitable from America’s beginning. Explore topics such as the effects of the Industrial Revolution, growth, multiple political compromises, and the root of the insurrection, slavery. Secondly, the course will explore military tactics in the 19th Century and how they changed due to the conflict.

John Mason was a contracting specialist with the U.S. Government. Now happily retired, he lives in Huntsville, Alabama, and studies everything that kept him from doing. When not researching and writing, he likes to read, travel, walk, and play a really bad game of golf.

Developing Resilience as a Leader
Robert Holmes
July 23 | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Sunny Slope Conference Room
The interactive workshop delves into the skills of an effective leader to build and promote resilience within their organization, team, or personal life. Emphasizing the importance of resilience, the workshop encourages participant interaction and learning through personal experiences. Suitable for individuals across various domains, including business, community organizations, and personal life, participants will glean valuable insights into enhancing their leadership capabilities.

Brigadier General USAF (Retired) Robert "Bob" Holmes led the 720th Special Tactics Group during Afghanistan combat operations post-9/11. Rising to flag rank in 2005, he held key roles such as USAF Director of Security Forces and Force Protection. A decorated combat veteran, Holmes offers leadership development and strategic planning services in Alabama.
Digital Sketching
Kelly Homan, Instructor
June 12, 13 | 9:00 am - 11:00 am | Sunny Slope Annex
Participants will utilize iPads with Apple Pencils provided in class for digital sketching. Drawing inspiration from historical examples, they'll explore various techniques. The equipment remains in class for uninterrupted access, enabling focused skill development and creative expression in a digital medium.

Kelly Homan, an assistant professor at Auburn University, focuses her research on Alabama grassland communities, ecologically focused urbanism, and landscape-scale biodiversity design. Her current projects include testing biochar amendment with native seed mixes, designing landscape corridors, and documenting native grasslands across Alabama.

The Emperor of All Maladies

The Financial Wisdom of Jane Austen
Ed Kerns, Instructor
July 10, 17, 24 | 9:00 am - 10:45 am | Sunny Slope Main Classroom
This course aims to enhance financial literacy through an exploration of money themes in the works of Jane Austen. Participants will delve into the motivations, behaviors, and biases of Austen's literary characters regarding financial decisions. The objectives are twofold: 1) to develop a more profound respect and appreciation for Austen’s astute use of the money metaphor; 2) to identify real-life financial behaviors, biases, and decision-making inspired by Austen’s fictional examples. Selected works include Pride and Prejudice, Sense and Sensibility, Persuasion, Northanger Abbey, Mansfield Park, and Emma.

Ed Kerns is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner with over ten years of experience and an interest in exploring the financial lessons of the Great Books of the Western World.

The French Presence in Colonial Alabama, 1699-1763
John Gurner, Instructor
July 11, 18, 25 | 9:00 am - 10:45 am | Zoom Only
Discover Alabama’s often-overlooked colonial history in this course. Before North American settlers claimed lands in the Mississippi Territory, French Canadians landed on the Gulf Coast to establish Louisiana. Join us as we journey from the banks of the Mobile River to the untamed frontier, where indigenous tribes, English merchants, Spanish spies, and Scottish traders competed to expand their commercial enterprises. Gain insight into Alabama’s rich colonial past through this exploration.

Updated 5/10/2024
John Gurner is the Site Historian at Fort Toulouse-Fort Jackson Park. He holds a Master of Arts in History with a concentration in Colonial South, 1607 to 1775, and a Master of Science by Research from the University of Edinburgh.

Hiker's Guide to the AllTrails App
Mike Aikins & Harold Bruner, Instructors
July 8, 15, 22 | 11:30 am - 01:00 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Learn how to navigate the app’s features, find trails, access essential information, and plan outings. Gain the skills needed to confidently explore nature’s wonders with AllTrails as your trusted companion, whether you’re a novice hiker or a seasoned explorer.

Mike Aikins is the chair of the OLLI technology committee and has a background as an online learning producer, videographer, and personal tech trainer. He holds a Ph.D. and an M.S. in Educational Technology, which enables him to collaborate effectively with educators and creatives to enhance learning experiences.

Harold Bruner has hiked extensively in the U.S. and Canada and, more recently, in northern England. He has led hikes for OLLI for the last six years. As a forestry graduate of Purdue, he worked in the forests of the Midwest for many years. Since moving to Auburn in 2014, he has enjoyed the biodiversity and many hiking opportunities in Alabama.

Hinges and Twinges: Active Adult Exercises
Deborah Manasco, Instructor
June 5, 12 (no class 6/19); July 10, 17, 24 | 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm | Auburn Unitarian Universalist Fellowship
Join us for standing and chair exercises that enhance flexibility, strength, and balance and promote functional fitness. We focus on building muscle memory, increasing mobility, and preventing falls through movements inspired by daily activities. A light cardio component adds motivation, encouraging safe motion awareness and confidence. Participants can proceed at their own pace.

Deborah Manasco is a retired law practitioner with the State of Alabama. She holds undergraduate studies in Health, PE, and recreation and is a certified therapeutic horsemanship instructor through PATH, Intl. Scott Bishop has been interested in cooking since she was in 4-H in Elmore County in the 1970s. Her first cookbook was her mother’s 1946 edition of Joy of Cooking. She sticks to a mostly vegetarian diet.

Mary Ann Hanson first experienced a vegan diet at a month-long yoga teacher training program. Within two weeks, her type 2 diabetes resolved and has not returned. She also experienced a dramatic reduction in cholesterol and feels better when following a vegan/vegetarian diet.

Rebecca Kelly has loved cooking since she became enamored of Julia Child’s PBS programs as a kid. Although she never exactly mastered the art of French cooking, she has been making and enjoying vegetarian dishes for several years.
Meeting the Expectations of Aging Healthy
Leisa Askew, Instructor
July 9, 16, 23 | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Navigating the process of aging involves understanding and addressing evolving needs and desires. In this course, we'll explore the concept of healthy aging—what it means, how it appears, and strategies for achieving it. We'll review available resources, discuss important documents to have in place, and explore essential conversations with your healthcare team and family. Additionally, we'll address various issues that may arise as individuals age, empowering participants to approach the aging process with confidence and preparedness.

Leisa Askew is a licensed social worker with 27 years of experience working with an aging population, a certified Dementia Care Specialist, and an Aging Resource Specialist.

Revolutionary Women of Influence
Richard Rhone, Instructor
June 4, 11, 18, 25 | 9:00 am - 10:15 am | OLLI Shares UA-Zoom
When studying the American Revolutionary War period, we usually hear only of the Founding Fathers. However, while playing very different roles and sometimes only behind the scenes, women had a lasting influence. This class will concentrate on four women who made significant contributions.

Richard Rhone, Ph.D., has taught American history classes for OLLI at UA for over a decade after retiring from careers in public education administration and child abuse and neglect prevention. His topics generally range from the American Colonial/Revolutionary War to the War Between the States and the Wild West, emphasizing the personalities and social aspects of history.

Scrabble: Tournament-Level Play
Eric Harshbarger, Instructor
June 4, 5, 6 | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Kitchen
So, you're pretty good at Scrabble? Think you know a lot of words? Did you know that there are Scrabble tournaments? This three-session course will highlight the differences between "casual" play and "competitive" games played at Scrabble tournaments throughout the year all over the country. Learn about the special equipment (boards, tiles, clocks, etc.) and what it takes to be a REALLY good Scrabble player. Also, learn some basic tricks to improve your game immediately, so if nothing else, you can trounce all of your family members when you play Scrabble during holiday gatherings.

Eric Harshbarger, a Lecturer of Mathematics at Auburn University, has been a Scrabble enthusiast since childhood. He began playing the game competitively in 2001 and has since become the highest-rated Scrabble player in Alabama. With his dedication and skill, Harshbarger is ranked among the top 100 players in the United States.

Sketching History and Practice
William "Bill" Squires, Instructor
June 11, 12, 13 | 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Throughout the course, participants can study historical examples of drawings and sketches as a source of inspiration. Guided by these insights, they will engage in hands-on practice, drawing and sketching in their sketchbooks. Utilizing a range of tools, materials, and techniques, participants will explore diverse approaches to expressing their creativity on paper.

Required materials to be purchased by the member: sketching tools and materials you like to work with.

Bill Squires is an emeritus professor of art with earned degrees from three universities. After fifty years of artwork and thirty years of teaching, exhibiting, and publishing, your workshop host is still having fun.
Spending time with Descendants of the Historic Slave Ship Clotilda
Joan Harrell, Instructor
July 9, 10, 11 | 9:00 am - 10:30 am | Sunny Slope Annex & Zoom | OLLI Shares
Students will explore the legacy of Gomes Eanes de Azurara, a Portuguese chronicler known for shaping negative socio-political stereotypes of Africans. Through readings of slave narratives and audio recordings, learners will engage with the voices of enslaved individuals. Additionally, virtual conversations with descendants of the historic slave ship Clotilda will provide insight into the founding of Africatown in Mobile, AL. This multimedia, dialogue-based course invites critical examination of America's original sin of racism and the transatlantic slave trade, as posited by theologian James Cone. Participants will have a safe space to share perspectives, ask questions, and gain knowledge about the enduring impact of slavery on the New World and its relevance today. This course offers an opportunity to activate change.

Suggested materials:
- The Survivors of the Clotilda: Lost Stories of the Last Captives on The American Slave Trade by Hannah Durkin. ISBN: 978-1788310531

Joan R. Harrell, DMIN, MDiv, MS, is the Director of Inclusive Excellence at Auburn University's College of Liberal Arts. With a background in journalism and Africana Studies, she also serves as faculty in these areas. Dr. Harrell is the Founder and Moderator of the Auburn University Becoming the Beloved Community initiative, fostering dialogue and unity on campus.

Still Life Drawing
Leslie Beard, Instructor
July 23, 24, 25 | 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
Participants will explore methods of observation and artistic expression through graphite drawing. Drawing inspiration from still-life compositions, participants will learn techniques to capture detail, form, and texture using graphite pencils.

Required materials to be purchased by the member:
- Sketchbook suitable for dry media, sized between 7”x10” to 9”x12”
- Graphite pencils: HB and 6B (or 4B)
- Pencil sharpener
- White eraser

Leslie Beard, a former interior designer turned author and illustrator, has crafted several compelling graphic memoirs.

Summer Mysteries
Harold Bruner, Instructor
June 4, 11, 18; July 9, 16, 23 | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | AUUF
Throughout this course, we will explore several mystery novels and participate in group discussions. A class member will lead each discussion. Book titles are forthcoming.

Harold Bruner is a dedicated OLLI member who enjoys exploring a diverse range of books. He has led book discussions for OLLI for a few years and serves on the Executive Committee of the OLLI Advisory Council.

Writing without a Safety Net
Mystic Order of East Alabama Fiction Writers, Instructors
July 8, 15, 22 | 09:00 am - 11:00 am | Sunny Slope Annex

Join us for a workshop where we’ll share tips and practices to help you take risks and be more vulnerable in your writing. While the focus is on fiction, everyone is welcome. Because good writing is good, whether it's fiction, non-fiction, memoir, or anything else.

Mystic Order of East Alabama Fiction Writers: Not one of the six Mystics can say how long the group has been together as writers and companions, but an educated guess would be close to twenty-something years—long enough to become sisters without a DNA match. The Mystic Order of East Alabama Fiction Writers gathers each first Wednesday of the month to share their work and their lives. With four previous books mostly filled with fiction tales – Be the Flame, Not the Moth, The Ploy of Cooking, and Mastering the Art of Wench Cooking – they recently took a detour into memoir with their fifth book, The Mystic Memoir.
Special Interest Groups (SIG)
Any OLLI member, general or academic, may register for a SIG.

(Play) Mah Jongg (SIG)
Kim Scarborough, Facilitator
Tuesdays | 1:00 pm - 3:30 pm | Sunny Slope Kitchen
You must have had some previous experience playing. Please note that there won’t be any formal instructors available, as this is not a course for learning the game. It’s an opportunity to meet and play with other game enthusiasts. OLLI provides 12 cards and one set, but please bring your own cards and game sets if you have them.

Looking At Photography with a Critical Eye (SIG)
Curtis Shannon, Facilitator
Thursdays | 11:00 am - 12:30 pm | Sunny Slope Conference Room
If you have ever wondered why contemporary photography is interesting and how to engage with it, this Special Interest Group (SIG) is for you. Join us as we explore the power of observation, the nature of photographs, developing a critical eye, mapping photographs, and picturing the South.

Meditation (SIG)
Leslie Beard, Facilitator
Mondays | 5:00 pm - 6:15 pm | Sunny Slope Annex
The OLLI Meditation SIG meets weekly to meditate and build a supportive community for meditators of all levels and disciplines.

Exploring Margaret Renkl’s The Comfort of Crows (Public Session)

June 20 | 4:30 pm - 5:30 pm | Auburn Public Library
Join Ken Autrey, Jay Lamar, and Wendy Cleveland as they delve into Margaret Renkl’s acclaimed work. This session is open to everyone and previews Renkl’s upcoming visit for OLLI Day in August.
Recommended but not required: Margaret Renkl’s “The Comfort of Crows” is available at Auburn Oil Company with a 10% OLLI discount.
Register for OLLI at Auburn University Summer Courses

Welcome to OLLI at Auburn University! We are thrilled to offer diverse and enriching courses for the upcoming summer semester. Whether you’re looking to pursue a new interest or enhance your existing skills, OLLI has something for everyone.

Important Notes:
- Registration Period: Mark your calendar! Registration for OLLI summer courses opens on May 13, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. and closes on May 24, 2024.
- Membership and Fees:
  - OLLI Annual Membership is $50.
  - Membership Term: OLLI Membership spans from August 1, 2023, to July 31, 2024. If you haven’t joined yet, you can sign up anytime.
  - OLLI Membership is required for course enrollment each term.
  - Summer Term Academic Fee: $40, unless you have purchased the all-inclusive membership ($315), which covers the annual membership and all terms (fall, winter, spring, and summer) with no additional fees. However, if you have the all-inclusive membership for $275, the $40 academic fee for the summer term still applies.
  - For Special Interest Groups (SIGS), only OLLI membership is required; no additional academic fee is necessary.
- Course Specifics: Please review course descriptions for any specific requirements, such as additional materials or a course fee.
- Registration Support: If you have any registration inquiries or require assistance, contact the OLLI office at 334-844-3146 or olli@auburn.edu.
